

REMOTE PRE HOSPITAL TRAUMA & DISASTER COURSE (RPHTDC)

This is a 2 day course for personnel who routinely attend pre-hospital incidents by providing participants with the theoretical knowledge and practical skills to safely and effectively manage trauma or disaster patients in the pre-hospital environment.

COURSE CONTENT:

- Demonstrate the assessment & effective management of a vehicle crash scene
- Demonstrate the assessment & effective management of trapped casualties
- Demonstrate the safe extrication of trapped casualties
- Discuss the importance of & demonstrate working effectively within a team setting
- Demonstrate the triage sort & sieve, treatment & transport principles used within mass casualty incidents

SUITABLE PARTICIPANTS:

Remote area health personnel, ambulance auxiliary, General Practitioners, medical & nursing professionals, retrieval specialists, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Practitioners (ATSIHPs), emergency services, mine rescue and the Australian Defence Force health personnel.

REGISTER YOUR INTEREST ON-LINE

W nationaltraumacentre.nt.gov.au
E admin.ncctrc@nt.gov.au

NATIONAL CRITICAL
CARE AND TRAUMA
RESPONSE CENTRE